

Website Bio (The Advocacy Life)

Kevin G. Nuñez is a recognized disability rights advocate, author, speaker, and media producer based in New Jersey. Living with Cerebral Palsy, Kevin has dedicated over a decade to changing public perception and advancing policy and equity for individuals with developmental disabilities.

He serves on the Board of Directors for both the National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities (NACDD) and National TASH. Previously, Kevin served as Vice Chair of the New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities (NJCDD), Mid-Atlantic Regional Representative for Self-Advocates Becoming Empowered (SABE), and Coalition Committee Chair for the national #YesAccess Campaign.

A guest of honor for Senator Andy Kim at a Joint Session of Congress and a featured speaker at the White House for the Biden-Harris Celebration of the Olmstead Decision, Kevin is the host of The Advocacy Life Podcast & Blog and author of Confessions from Disability Limbo and Beyond What You See: A Journey of Faith.

College Presentation Bio (Short Form — Program Intros & Slides)

Kevin G. Nuñez is a national disability policy leader, author, and content creator. He sits on the National Board of Directors for NACDD and National TASH, having previously served as Vice Chair of the New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities and Mid-Atlantic Representative for SABE. Kevin is the producer of The Advocacy Life Podcast & Blog and author of two non-fiction books on faith and disability commentary.

A White House speaker and Congressional guest of honor, Kevin presents widely on disability justice, public policy, and authentic representation.

College Presentation Bio (Long Form — Full Event Keynote Intros)

Kevin G. Nuñez is an influential disability rights advocate, author, public speaker, and media creator whose work bridges legislative policy, personal narrative, and grassroots activism. Born with Cerebral Palsy, Kevin's advocacy journey spans over a decade of executive leadership, strategic policy reform, and direct legislative engagement.

Currently, Kevin serves on the National Board of Directors for both the National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities (NACDD) and National TASH. He previously served as Vice Chair of the New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities (NJCDD)—where he chaired the State Grants Committee and retooled funding initiatives into Community Innovation Projects—and as Mid-Atlantic Regional Representative for Self-Advocates Becoming Empowered (SABE). As Coalition Chair for the national #YesAccess Campaign, he led multi-organization grassroots initiatives to unify messaging across the disability movement.

Kevin's legislative work has reached the highest levels of government. He was a featured speaker at the White House for the Biden-Harris Celebration of the Olmstead Decision and served as Guest of Honor for Senator Andy Kim during a Joint Session of Congress. Kevin holds a Partners in Policymaking certification, produces The Advocacy Life Podcast & Blog, and is the author of Confessions from Disability Limbo: A Commentary on Society (2021) and Beyond What You See: A Journey of Faith (2024).

Social Media Outlets

X / Instagram / TikTok:

Disability Rights Advocate | Author (Confessions from Disability Limbo & Beyond What You See)
| NACDD & National TASH Board Member | Host @TheAdvocacyLife

LinkedIn Summary:

Disability Rights Advocate, Author, and Host of The Advocacy Life Podcast & Blog. National Board Member at NACDD & National TASH. Former Vice Chair of the NJ Council on Developmental Disabilities & Coalition Chair for the #YesAccess Campaign. Keynote speaker on disability justice, public policy, accessibility, and authentic media representation.